

Landmarks Foundation of Montgomery Presents

Cultural Crossroads XVIII: Old Federal Road

February 9, 2019

- 8:30 - 9:15 a.m.: Registration and Coffee
- 9:00 - 9:15 a.m.: Welcome
Dr. Michael W. Panhorst, Executive Director, Landmarks Foundation of Montgomery
- 9:15 - 9:45 a.m.: Trails and Traces across Colonial America: The Old Federal Road and Its Predecessors
Dr. Gregory A. Waselkov, Professor Emeritus, University of South Alabama
- 9:45 - 10:15 a.m.: Mapping the Old Federal Road
Raven Christopher, Alabama Department of Archives and History
- 10:15 - 10:30 a.m.: Questions & Answers
- 10:30 - 10:45 a.m.: Break
- 10:45 - 11:15 a.m.: The Road that led to Destruction: The Federal Road and the Creek Indian Nation
Dr. Kathryn H. Braund, Hollifield Professor of History, Auburn University
- 11:15 - 11:45 a.m.: "This Accursed Traffic": Slavery and the Federal Road
Dr. Angela Pulley Hudson, Texas A & M University
- 11:45 - 12:00 p.m.: Questions & Answers
- 12:00 - 1:00 p.m.: Lunch and Visit ADAH's Alabama Voices
Reserved lunches served in Milo B. Howard Auditorium
- 1:00 - 1:30 p.m.: Thirty Five Years On The Road
Mark Dauber, Art Photographer and Writer
- 1:30 - 2:00 p.m.: Mt. Vernon Arsenal and the Old Federal Road
Collier Neeley, Alabama Historical Commission
- 2:00 - 2:15 p.m.: Break
- 2:15 - 2:45 p.m.: Mary Ann Neeley, Lucas Tavern and the Power of Ideas
Carole King, Curator, Landmarks Foundation of Montgomery & Old Alabama Town and Dr. Kathryn H. Braund, Hollifield Professor of History, Auburn University
- 2:45 p.m.: Concluding Remarks/Questions & Answers
- 4:00 p.m. Reception at Lucas Tavern in Old Alabama Town

Moderator: Alex Colvin

FREE, but registration is required; $25 for lunch reservations
Please register by February 1, 2019

at www.landmarksfoundation.com or the Loeb Visitor Center at Old Alabama Town